We just got off a three-way conference call with Bob Starr and C.J. Prince.
C.J. Prince is one of Nancy Lord's staffers.

Bob was arrested at approximately 9:00 am by the ATF and a local sheriff, while on his brother's property. Bob and his wife are currently living with Bob's parents, who live about 5 houses from his brother. He is in the process of rehabbing a trailer on his brother's property that he and his wife bought and were going to put onto property they own. He keeps his electrical supplies at his brother's place, and had stopped there to pick up some items to take to an electrical job.

Bob did not resist arrest and was not harmed physically. He was read his rights, but has yet to see a warrant. He was not allowed to make any calls until 7:00pm EST.

Bond hearing will be held at 9:00am Monday, before a U.S. Magistrate in the Federal District Court, Macon, Georgia.

Bob's in as good spirits as can be expected and appreciates everyone's concern.
